Thank you for helping us remember with this beautiful moving creation.

Ann Brady
Newry.

Many, many thanks
for your wonderful creation. The simplicity of your work befits
the complex emotions
and feelings it
evokes.

Jean Byrne.

Thought provoking and very beautiful.

Is sad that we don't have the time to go around in Kaohsiung.

To have a solo exhibition in another country is very hard. Hope these days will become good memories.

Nice to meet
you ♥ Have a good trip.
keep in touch.

Dear Lyuis, you for Just a little note to thank,
your creation of the Linen Memorial. I have been struck by the simplicity of your work.
It was such an honour to have been involved in helping to assemble it here in St.
Catherine's, Newry.

I wish you many blessings as you continue on your own life journey. Maybe we will meet again. With love, Anna Brady x

Penal Rosary Beads
 During Penal times in Ireland when no-one was allowed to practice their Catholic faith. Rosary beads similar to these would have been used. The Rosary beads could be concealed on their person without being discovered. I have crocheted them using crochet cotton and a Clones knot.
